POETRY.

THE MAN OF WOOL.

BY RUTHELLA SCHULTZ.

Oh, Altogether Lovely,

Among ten thousand Chief!

How sad Thy pilgrimage on earth,

Altho' its years were brief,

That thro' Thy bloody agony

Our souls should find relief,

And We should call Thee "Man of wool,"

"A man acquaint with grief."

Before the stars their courses knew

Thou calledst them by name,

Or ere the sun his race began,

Or angels did proclaim

Above the beauties, new-born earth

The glory of Thy name;

From everlasting Thou art God,

Forevermore the same!

Oh, Altogether Lovely,

Among ten thousand Chief,

How sad Thy pilgrimage on earth,

Altho' its years were brief,

That thro' Thy bloody agony

Our souls might find relief;

And We should call Thee "Man of wool,"

"A man acquaint with grief."

The prowling panther hath his lair,

The lion hath his bed,

The tiger knoweth where her young

Securely may be fed,

The birds their tender nestlings rear

Where Thy best gifts are shed,

But Thou, the Lord of Glory, hadst

Not where to lay Thy head!

The deserts knew Thy wanderings,

The wilderness Thy way,

The mountains yet their cedars wave

The Ypsilanti Commercial.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY, BY
C. R. PATTISON.

After this date our time will be less occupied by outside matters and we shall endeavor to be punctual in our appearance unless we shall conclude to discontinue altogether the thankless task of publishing that universally esteemed indispensable, yet as universally unappreciated and unpaid journal, a "local paper." "Tell it not in Gath"—rather tell it everywhere that a place aspiring to be a city—aspiring to rank among the first in wealth, enterprise and intelligence, must either have no representation in the press of the State, or must have it as the unpaid self-denying labor of the proprietors.—Sentinel.

Thus talks our cotemporary. Let him change his tone and publish a loyal paper, and instead of howling over his "thankless task," and abusing community for not sustaining him, he will feel it a pleasure to express his sincere thanks for the good measure of sympathy and material support rendered.

We take this occasion to express to an appreciating community, our warmest thanks for the hearty sympathy and generous material support given to the COMMERCIAL. It is true that it seemed up hill work at the beginning, and we were at times discouraged. To start a newspaper, to stock an office with material and build it up, and place it on a solid financial basis, is a great undertaking—a greater one than we had the most distant conception of;—a task that money would not tempt us to undertake again. But thanks to a smiling providence, and a sympathizing and large hearted community, the thing is done. The COMMERCIAL is an established fact, to grow with the growth, and expand with the business facilities of our beautiful city. We thank the increasing number of subscribers among our stable, steadfast farmers. They visit our office $2 in hand, with a pleasant greeting, a kind word of commendation. So long as there are such a noble band of manly men, ardent supporters and patriots in the rich country centering at Ypsilanti, the COMMERCIAL will never know the word fail.

We thank our city subscribers—many of them are rich in this world's goods—some of them are poor, but of their scanty earnings they bring their quarterly payments for the COMMERCIAL, punctually. These noble men and women, who sustain our paper at a sacrifice have our sincere thanks. What ever good the COMMERCIAL can do for you it will cheerfully do. Count us your earnest friend. We have some subscribers among a class, who have been regarded as outcasts, denied the rights of American citizens, the real elements of manhood in the social and civil status of their native land. We have felt it our duty to plead their cause, and shall continue to do so until impartial suffrage prevails.

We extend our thanks to the business men of Ypsilanti. You have done well by us and well for yourselves. You have manifested a broad business spirit, a wise foresight, which while it has breathed a healthful vitality into the COMMERCIAL, has also increased your business, enlarged the fame of your respective firms—brought a wider range of trade to our city, and imparted a stimulus to its prosperity and growth. Thanking you for the past, we trust our relations will continue as pleasant in the future. And we wish our many friends, our well tried supporters, the favor of God, health, length of days and unbounded prosperity.

Some of the more considerate Southern papers are advising their readers to drop policies, and attend sedulously to the development of the resources, and the reparation of their losses. This is their "best hold" for the present. Let them look up in hot hearts their burning wrongs, cherish the memory of their patriotic dead, cultivate the amor patriae of their children, instill into their minds the love of religious and civil freedom, and let the shattered ship of State drift under the control of the fools and knaves, and fanatics that now control it. Doing this, as sure as there is justice in heaven, the time will come when they can take it by their own by right of salvage, or cut adrift from the rotten hulk without danger.—Sentinel.

From first to last our cotemporary has published a rebel paper. There are a few honest, bold, outspoken Democratic papers in the North like the Sentinel. But the mass have preferred to be less outspoken, while stabbing the republic not less vigorously in the dark, indirectly. The papers like the Argus and others we might mention, equally sympathizing with the South; but like the cat in the tub of meal concealing their animus, yet arriving at the same ends, are far more dangerous enemies of the public weal. Just think of it. A northern paper, published in a patriotic community advising whipped rebels, men who did their best to overthrow this fair fabric of government, to "look up in hot hearts their burning wrongs." Bide the time, "when they can take it (control of the government) as their own right of salvage, or cut adrift from the rotten hulk without danger." Could the paper edited by the pirate Semmes exceed it? The editor of the Sentinel has no business editing a paper at the North. His proper sphere is in Alabama or Texas.

This is the case, particularly with democratic papers, and if it shall continue, before the next Presidential Election no democratic paper will exist out of the large cities, and with the local press will also disappear all local democratic strength. The result is as certain as it seems to be inevitable.—Sentinel.

Not at all surprised that Democratic papers are at a discount. No patriot can justify himself before the bar of his conscience, or an enlightened patriotic public sentiment and sustain a paper, so unblushingly rebel in its tone and spirit as the Sentinel. Public opinion will not longer tolerate a press, whose sympathies are with the men who have sought to overthrow our Government—have butchered our brothers, and sons in cold blood in defiance of the laws of war, and in a hell hound spirit starved our loved ones, murdering them by inches in cold, damp, dark cells. Such a press ought to be starved out and will be. The next Presidential election will find them as scarce at the North, as loyal papers at the South.

WHAT NOW.
The President is selfwilled, the South bent on rejecting the amendments. Shall the President be impeached? He ought to and we believe he will if Congress is not composed of cowards. The only cure for the south is the speedy enfranchisement of her people. It will be done if the rebel States reject the amendments. It ought to be done at all events. Impartial Suffrage is the only salvation of this country. We shall discuss these questions fully.

MEXICAN AFFAIRS.
The President and Seward, the wily schemer are seeking to involve us in Mexican affairs. Gen. Sherman and Minister Campbell have gone to Mexico. It is proposed to drive out Maximilian just on his last legs, and ready to leave. Take possession of a liberal slice of Mexican territory and assume the Mexican debts to all the ends of the earth. It would seem as if we were deep enough in debt now. It is a most rascally scheme of private speculation, and will be frowned upon by the people.

Capt Spencer received 160 majority in the City.—In town 163. Childs, 79 in city—town, 113, Augusta went 7 Democratic, but gave Childs, 9 majority. Forsyth in city 18 against him, Town, 110 against him. Spencer and Forsyth both ran ahead of their tickets. Spencer 168, Forsyth 67.

THE PRESIDENT STUBBORN.
If we may judge from Dame Rumor the President is unmoved by the result of the Elections. He knows more than the people. The people are not competent to judge. They are swayed by passion. Poor man how little he knows the people at the north.

GRATIFYING.
The public rejoice over the election of the soldiers Spencer, Babbitt and Porter. It is a glorious triumph. We are surprised at the treatment these soldiers received in Ann Arbor. It is a burning shame to that city. We regret the defeat of Mr. Cramer. Local causes conspired to it. He did well in the country towns. His speeches were well received. He proved himself one of our most effective canvassers.

GIVE US BACK OUR DEAD.

Don't fail to read the following article. It is in point, it is about time we ceased to demand a Union cemented by slavery, groans and tears, and blood, a Union which brought upon us the curse of God. Yes give us back our dead first, our murdered and starved sons and brothers.

The disconsolate copperheads keep murmuring, "Give us the Union as it was!" Let the answer of patriots be "Give us back our dead!" Into the glassy eye of Lyon put the electric light that shone when he led the heroic charge. Restore to Ellsworth his young life and manly beauty. Give vigor to the wasted limbs of Kearney. Bring back the war-worn veteran Sumner.—Revive the McCooks, twin brothers of valor. Heal the savage wounds of Dahlgren. Reanimate the commanding form of Elliot. Call Sedgwick from his grave, and Wadsworth from the silent republic of the dead. Breathe the breath of life into the nostrils of the gentle Lander. Return new strength to the sinewy arm of Reno. Bring back its musical cadence to the tongue of Baker, and cleanse his hair from the gore which your fellow democrats shed upon it. Restore the enlivening smile of humanity to the careworn face of Lincoln, now palled under the bloody hand of the democratic assassin, and bring back daylight to the glassy eyes that were so sleepless for the Union and freedom. Take down the bereavement that hangs in the sorrowful dwellings of the people, and bring back to life and home the thousands of devoted men who dyed the land of treason red with blood to make it pure. Do this, O thou thrice damned spirit of rebellion, and thou mayest again have the Union as it was.—Connersville Times.

THE COUNTY OFFICERS.

After the first of January the County Officers will be.
Byron R. Porter, Sheriff.
John I. Thompson, Clerk.
Clinton Spencer, Register.
Robert E. Frazer, Pros. Atty.
John W. Babbitt, Treasurer.
Sibley G. Taylor and Charles Holmes, Jr. Circuit Court Commissioners.

Joshua G. Leland and George H. Rhodes, Coroners.

Judge Beakes holds over.

Mr. Frazer the only Democrat elected.

J. Webster Childs Rep, is the Senator elect, from the Sixth Senate District.
John S. Jenness Rep, from the first Rep. District, and Thomas White Rep, from the Second District, Mr. Cory Dem. from the 3d, and Samson Parker Democrat from the 4th, will represent the County in the Legislature.

THE ELECTIONS.

Majorities increase. Fenton's majority in New York, reaches 15,462. Wisconsin 25,000. Illinois 60,000. Minnesota 15,000. Kansas 20,000. Our own State 30,000. Hurrah for the great West.

FAMINE IN INDIA.

It is awful beyond all description. Thousands are dying daily. 25,000 starving people in Calcutta alone.

Iowa appears to be the soundest, politically, of all the Western States, taking rank even with Vermont and Massachusetts, for steady devotion to the cause of human rights.—A friend writes: "The village of Grinnell gave 209 votes—just one for A. J. Reason—good preaching, many books and papers, and no liquor. Happy place!"

TWO FACTS FOR PARENTS.—I would be glad to see more parents understand that when they spend money judiciously to improve and adorn the house and the grounds around it, they are in effect paying their children a premium to stay at home as much as possible, to enjoy it; but that when they spend money unnecessarily in fine clothing and jewelry for their children, they are paying them a premium to spend their time away from home—that is, in those places where they can attract the most attention and make the most display.

We were never aware that there was so great a difference in the qualities of bar soap until after using the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap; our advice to our readers is go without delay to your grocer and get a supply, for it is a truly wonderful article and will not injure the finest fabric; our experience is that it is the best and greatest dirt-extractor known among the many different brands of soap in the market. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

MARRIED.

PARROT—VANCE—In Ypsilanti, Tuesday Oct. 30th, at St. Lukes Church, by the Rev. John A. Wilson, Mr. Joseph S. Parrot, of Morgan County, Alabama, to Mary L., daughter of John W. Vance, Esq., of Ypsilanti.

We wish the fair bride much future happiness. 1866 so far has taken away a great many of our marriageable girls. We conclude that Ypsilanti must be famous for its good girls, charming brides, and excellent wives.

ENGLE—CRITTENDEN—At the residence of Allen Crittenden, in Pittsfield, Wednesday, Nov. 7th, by the Rev. Norman Kellogg, Mr. Seth E. Engle and Miss Amelia A. Crittenden, respectively of Saline and Pittsfield, Mich.

BRANFORD—DEAN—In Ypsilanti, Nov. 11th, at the residence of Wm. Caze, Wm. Branford, to Julia Ann Dean, both of Ypsilanti.
